

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH, BATH, N. C.—5

10641

St. Thomas' Church is the oldest Church in the oldest town in North Carolina. The Parish was established by the Church of England in 1701, the Church being erected in 1734. The Church contains many ancient relics given by the royalty in England. An annual pilgrimage is made to this Church every November.

POST CARD

This is the first town in America to bear the name of Washington,
Miss Jane Harris, Barnstable - Mass.

There are 27 others
that now bear the name

Regards to your father,
Mrs Greene

MADE IN U.S.A. BY THE GRIFF CO., MILWAUKEE, WIS.